Re: Consumer Protection Act, 2002 Review Consultation Paper
Proposal Number: 20-MGCS023
Submission of the Public Interest Advocacy Centre

Dear Sir or Madam,

The Public Interest Advocacy Centre (PIAC) is a national non-profit organization and charity that represents the interests of ordinary and vulnerable consumers in important public services delivered by the private sector. PIAC has pursued this work for over 40 years and has previously intervened in CRTC broadcasting proceedings where the consumer interest in broadcasting is engaged. PIAC wishes to made an intervenor in the above-noted proceeding.

We are not submitting comments on the CRTC's notice at this time, but look forward to the opportunity of reviewing other parties' submissions. We may then submit reply comments by 28 April 2021.

Sincerely,

John Lawford
Executive Director & General Counsel
